Further news from Hooker—6000 Rebel Prisoners Captured—Rebel Reinforcements from N C, and Peninsula—Rebel General Hill Killed—Heavy Rebel Force Assaults Fredericksburg—The Rebels retake Fredericksburg—Gen Sedgwick recrosses the River—400 Prisoners have arrived at Washington Our troops still hold the Heights below Fredericksburg—The Riot at Dayton, Ohio—Later from Europe.

WASHINGTON 5th

A son of ex-Senator A G Brown of Mississippi, is among the rebel prisoners. More than 8000 are now here

NEW YORK, 6th

The Tribune's correspondent with Gen Hooker's army writing at sunrise, Monday morning, says the guns are already thundering on our left

Over 6000 rebel prisoners have been brought in.

They report Jackson in command of the rebel army, and that reinforcements have been sent from N C and the Peninsula

Our losses are heavy

The rebel Gen Hill is killed

Another correspondent with Sedgwick's division dating Monday morning, says the battle opened again at daylight, and is still going on on the hills at the extreme left

Gibbon's division of the 21 corps, retended to Falmouth last night, and Hall's brigade has gone over

The Times correspondent with Hooker, writing on Sunday night says Gen Howard has again reorganized his 11th corps, and they have been placed on duty again

Gen Averell with his cavalry command, reported to Gen Hooker on Sunday at noon, having been absent 18 days, and had been as far South as Rapidan Station, where they destroyed the bridges on the Orange & Alexandria Railroad, and drove Lee and Stuart out of Culpepper, where he captured a lot of salt and bacon which he gave to the suffering rebel fanis

Gen Averill has received instructions for further important work

The Times correspondent with General Sedgwick's right says the battle of the Rappahannock fight, but nothing new except a portion of Monday forenoon during that a considerable body of rebels made their appearance below Fredericksburg, marching on that place to join a portion of the rear of Gen Sedgwick's corps

This force was judged to be Longstreet's but but his attempt to retake the hills was successful

The World's correspondent dating 10 o'clock, Monday morning says, Gen Sedgwick has set out on toward Gen Hooker and Gibbon's division is left to guard the the heights in the rear of Fredericksburg and have been assaulted by the rebels in large forces, and are in danger of losing their position and abandoning Fredericksburg also, other

The Herald's correspondent, during Monday night, says heavy firing in the direction of Chancellorsville has continued all day There has been a great battle there,

Large reinforcements had arrived to the enemy apparently from Richmond

NEW YORK, 6th

The Australasian from Liverpool 25th, arrived at 9 o'clock.

The Norwegian, for Quebec took out brief advices of important debates in both houses of Parliament concerning the seizure of British ships in neutral waters, and protest on granted by Mr Adams to Mexican traders

Many speakers urged that such proceedings cannot be tolerated.

Mr Roebuck declared himself for war to put down the upstart insolence of mount s

Their supporters counselled moderation and deprecated the violence of some of the speakers

Lord Palmerston simply said the matters were being considered, but Earl Russel as of the seizure of the Dolphin and the conduct of Mr Adams would be represented to the Washington Government for redress

In the House of Commons on the 24th, the merits of the Alexandra affair were generally debated

Mr Cobden asserted that America had always acted up to the principles of the foreign enlistment act toward England, and he demanded that England should act in a like spirit towards America.

He denounced the case of the Alabama, and said she should be seized as the only method of ending such practices

Sir Fitz Royal Kelly asked if the government was taking steps to protect the postal service with Mexico

Lord Palmerston said Eng and's commercial interest with Mexico had the most security in the belief that the United States Government would not make so mere wanton disposition, and there was reason to believe that United States prize courts would not act upon suspected mails and would discuss up any correspondence obstructing to good faith The subject then dropped

The British squadron in the Pacific is to be strengthened

The Polish insurgents continue active

LONDON 26th

The ship Panjaub, from Calcutta, has arrived here. She was captured March 14th, lat 9, lon 31 W, by the Alabama, but the cargo being British, the property of the Panjaub was released on giving a ransom bond of $65,000

NEW YORK, 6th

The Herald has issued extras stating that the rebels having been repulsed after a frightful slaughter, repossessed the heights of Fredericksburg, and General Sedgwick has recrossed to Falmouth

WASHINGTON 5th

Since Saturday nearly 3000 rebel prisoners have been brought to this city 780 arrived here at two o'clock p m today, and were like their predecessors, marched to the Provost Marshal's office under a strong guard and thence they were conveyed to safe quarters

The number is already too large for convenient accommodations

Additional prisoners are to be sent up from the Rappahannock, making in all 4000 and over certainly in our hands.

PHILADELPHIA, 6th

The Enquirer of this city contains the following intelligence from Washington.

The news from General Hooker's army is of a very conflicting and misapprehensible character Instructions have been given to those in the government service not to impart information to any one regarding the progress of operations in and around Fredericksburg upon their arrival here

Accounts pretty generally agree that the rebels have occupied Fredericksburg

The heights below are jointly occupied by rebel and Union troops

The portion of the heights occupied by our forces on Sunday morning, were taken after a desperate resistance by fresh reinforcements from General Longstreet's corps

Up to the present moment (Tuesday 5th) 8 o'clock p m nothing is known of a definite character beyond the fact that many thousands on both sides have been killed and wounded, and that the fight has been in progress since Wednesday last It was thought the grand denouement would take place today, or at least to morrow (Wednesday) That although the rebels had occupied Fredericksburg, and did movement on their part is but a part and parcel of General Hooker's plan and that the rebels would either be bagged therein or make a precipitate retreat

NEW YORK, 6th

The following is from the Herald's extra

"Our messengers from Hooker's army bring details of the movements on Monday night, and the movements of Sedgwick to 8 o'clock Tuesday morning General Hooker maintained his new line on the edge of the woods a short distance north of Chancellorsville, crossing the main road leading to U S Ford, without important change

There was no fighting there until late Monday afternoon, when the division of the 5th corps advanced towards Fredericksburg meeting rebel skirmishers on the roads and driving them back

The main body pushed on, meeting a large body of rebels in a double line of battle A half hours heavy fight ensued our batteries compelling the rebels to fall back in disorder

The divisions then returned to our main line and rested, having ascertained the enemy's position

General Hooker on Sunday night and Monday extended himself, and is abundantly able to resist any rebel attack which may be made.

From General Sedgwick's corps the Herald prints the following in substance

It appears that after the great struggle of Sunday, Lee detached a large body of his rebels to meet Sedgwick, and it is now known that Longstreet was also rapidly getting in Sedgwick's rear at the same time

Early on Monday morning large masses of rebels appeared on the heights east of Fredericksburg, where we had but a small force, having sent a large portion to strengthen Sedgwick The point was relinquished after a short resistance, having first removed all the guns

General Sedgwick was hotly engaged all Monday, the rebels pressing him at six points His men were all glad to give way before the overwhelming masses of rebels and his command are deemed certain when the Vermont Brigade made a ferocious charge, repulsing the enemy and securing the safety of that portion of the army

The slaughter of the enemy here, near Banks Ford, was perfectly horrible, while brigade of rebels being literally wiped out General Sedgwick, however, recrossed the river in the face of the enemy, after midnight, the enemy raising our troops with artillery, causing great loss of life

He succeeded in getting across in safety and is now on toward Gen Hooker and Gibbon's division left to guard the the heights in the rear of Fredericksburg and have been assaulted by the rebels in large forces, and are in danger of losing their position and abandoning Fredericksburg also, other

The news from General Hooker's army is of a very conflicting and misapprehensible character Instructions have been given to those in the government service not to impart information to any one regarding the progress of operations in and around Fredericksburg upon their arrival here

The Tribune has a special from Murfreesboro, dated 6 h, as follows

Deserters report rebel communications between Vicksburg Richmond, Charleston and Pollahoma, have been cut

NEW YORK, 6th

The Tribune's correspondent, writing Tuesday morning from Falmouth says

The enemy have regained Fredericksburg, but cannot hold it our army lie upon their flank and rear

The rebels are thought to have pontoons and preparations were taken to prevent a raid across the river

Colonel Hall re-crossed Tuesday

NEW YORK 6th

The Washington Republican of Tuesday evening says General Hooker on Monday succeeded in accomplishing several important movements, one of which forced Lee's whole army back more than two miles, inflicting upon the rebels great loss in killed, wounded and captured Several thousands were left by General Hooker himself, in person

NEW YORK 6th

The body of General Berry arrived here this forenoon

The New York Herald—no friend of General Hooker—is forced to admit that his (Hooker's) arrangements for crossing the Rappahannock were skillfully devised and handsomely executed and that his general plan of operations, so far as disclosed, is that of a leader who knows something of strategy as well as of the rough work of hard fighting"

FLUCK When the rebels demanded the surrender of our forces at Cape Girardeau they offered General McNeil a half hour to make up his mind General McNeil replied that they should credit him with twenty minutes, as he had decided in just one minute to hold the post himself And he did

CUTTING THE MOBILE RAILROAD The daring deed of our cavalry in penetrating to the neighborhood of Columbus, Miss, and cutting twenty miles of railroad may prove of great importance in its bearing on operations at Vicksburg No rebel cavalry raid has excelled the bravery displayed by it

DISAPPOINTED PEACEMONGERS. "Well, if this don't mean! Here's this feller been goin' about with this here yeller ribbon, and when I pulls it out there's no watch on the end of it! The confidence of these here fleshy slarks is enough to break the heart of a poor fellow like me, as has to depend on his brads for a livin'"

For Evening Telegraphic Despatches, &c., see First Page.

☞ We had the pleasure yesterday of examining a fine copy of Gildermeister's splendid picture of "Isaac's Oak," made by a talented young artist of our city, Mr. Geo. E. Dale, son of Mayor Dale. In the back ground of the picture is a beautiful view of part of the city of Rome, with hills in the distance. The size of the picture is about four feet by three. It is a most faithful copy of the original, and the coloring is so truthfully done as to exact from the critic an acknowledgement of high talent on the part of the artist. We trust those of our citizens who have a taste for art will examine this picture, at Mr. Dale's room in Wheelwright & Clark's Block.

Be Careful who Takes your Measure.—About ten days ago a couple of men from Hermon stepped into a saloon in the city for refreshment, when a bystander suggested to one of them that he would bet the drinks that he "girted" the most round the waist. After taking the measure, he owned up that he had lost the bet, and paid over; but when the Glenburn man left for home he found that he had been measured out of a valuable lever watch. He left information with Walker—which resulted in the arrest of one John Hess, upon whom the watch was found. He was charged with the theft, and being arraigned, was ordered to find bail in $300 to appear for examination at the Police Court on Saturday next—and for want of bail was committed.

The Mercantile Exchange. It will be seen by special notice that a meeting of the subscribers to the Bangor Merchants' Exchange will be held, for organization on Saturday next at 12 o'clock, at the room under the Farmers' Bank. The enterprize starts with flattering auspices

"The Opera," another large audience was in attendance at the Franklin Athenaeum last evening to witness the grand entertainment by the Holman Troupe. "Beauty and Beast" was the Opera; and its artistic rendition called forth unbounded applause from the audience. Miss Sallie is a most charming and versatile actress, possessing a powerful though sweet contralto voice. She thrills her audience by her beautiful ballads and her artistic singing of the gems of the Opera. Little Julia as the Queen of the Roses was magnificent. In fact, the whole troup are deservedly becoming public favorites. Tonight they appear in the Daughter of the Regiment and the Comic Operetta of the Young Actress. Let a full house award their efforts.

Returned Soldiers. Quite a number of discharged sick and wounded soldiers arrived in the Harvest Moon on Tuesday night—some from New Orleans; some from Washington, and some from the Rappahannock.

☞ A note from Major Gilmore of the 20th Maine, gives us some particulars of the first movement of the troops upon Fredericksburg—but nothing additional to the statements already published.

Real Estate Sale. E. S. Prescott sold at auction yesterday the house and land of Mr. Darius Lawrence, on Union street, for $14,50. Captain James Carle was the purchaser.

The house and lot of J. F. Shaw, Esq., on Kenduskeag Avenue, has been purchased by Captain Herman Bartlett for $1600.

☞ Since the adjournment of Congress, a period of only eight weeks, the amount of money lent by the people to the Government, through the five-twenties, has been over forty-five millions of dollars. That tells the story of popular confidence and loyalty.

☞ Henry M. Oliver, a native of Bath, who among the killed by the bursting of the boiler the steam tug Ada Hancox, near San Pedro, California, April 27th.

☞ Lieut. C. H. Howard of Leeds, Brother of Major General Howard, and a member of Gen. H.'s staff, has been promoted to rank as Major. Lieutenant H. was severely wounded in the leg at the battle of Fair Oaks.

☞ Rebel papers state that the washerwomen in Macon, Georgia, are on a strike, asking those who don't join them as "rats." The Richmond correspondent of the Winchester Journal says that a meal of beef steak, a dozen oysters and cheese, costs five dollars. Apples are twenty-five cents each, &c.

☞ A tin mine of remarkable richness has just been discovered in Washington County, Mo. A company has already been formed, and will soon go into operation. From inspection, it is said to yield $80 to the ton from the lead.

☞ The Emperor of France and the foreign and domestic nobility are making horsemanship fashionable in Paris. All the riding-masters there have their hands full in helping their numerous pupils into the saddle.

☞ The house of Hon. Daniel Marcy, of Portsmouth, N. H., was burglariously entered last Wednesday night and two gold watches stolen. One valued at $225, was taken from the room in which Mr. Marcy was sleeping.

☞ General Carey of Cincinnati, a conservative democrat, in a late speech by him made, said—"The rebels are guilty of a crime, but we shall be guilty of a greater one if we do not crush them."

☞ Another Diamond Wedding is on the tapis in New York, the bridegroom being a titled member of Victor Emanuel's court.

☞ The Camden and Amboy Railroad is to be at once double-tracked.

☞ Philadelphia receives $400,000 per annum for water rents

☞ He who asked the daughter's hand and got the father's soot had the consolation of knowing that his wooing was not bootless.

☞ In Cincinnati, on Saturday, the steersman of a canal boat threw into the canal two boys who wanted to go ashore, and one of them was drowned.

☞ There are now living in the town of Londonderry, N. H., five families on the original farms settled in 1719, at the time of the settlement of the town. These farms still retain the names of their original proprietors, the fifth generation having been born there. The names of the owners of these farms are Thomas Patterson, John Woodburn, Joseph Dickey, Wm. Anderson, Wm. Holmes

☞ The U S Marshal at Philadelphia sold sixty bales of pure cotton, Wednesday, at sixty-one cents

☞ The President does not propose to visit New England this summer; but Mrs Lincoln will attend the Harvard Commencement, and then proceed with her student-son to the White Mountains.

☞ The Nashville Union states that the rush of citizens desiring to take the oath of allegiance, in compliance with General Mitchell's recent order, is so great that the number of clerks delegated to attend to that duty has been increased from four to twelve.

☞ The "no cards" mania is extending. The Canada papers attach "no cards issued" to their funeral notices.

☞ The skedaddlers from the draft, who are now sawing wood for colored families in Canada for their bread, crowd out just so much labor from that section, which is now seeking employment all along our northern frontier.

☞ General S. F. Carey, of Ohio, formerly a "conservative" democrat of the straitest sect, tersely sums up a political and ethical creed for "our Southern brethren." "A rebel", has but two rights—a constitutional right to be hung and a divine right to be damned. Let us not

☞ The new Southern History of the Rebellion, issued in New York, is seized as contraband in Baltimore.

☞ A writer alluding to the tendency of the times to adopt calico for wear because it is dear, says:

"Of course as soon as calico is scarce and expensive the ladies wish to wear it; and were there to be a sudden dearth in the sack-cloth and ashes market, there is no doubt the dear creatures would haste on clothing themselves in that scriptural but at present no prevalent style of garment."

Sch Maine, Brown, from Robbinston for Providence, with a cargo of lumber, was seen ashore on the Hedge Fence, Vineyard Sound, on Sunday last.

☞ The Press publishes the following as the dates at which the terms of service of the nine months' men from this State expire:—21st regiment, July 13th, 1863; 22d, July 18th; 23d, June 29th; 24th, July 18th; 25th, June 29th; 26th, July 18th; 27th, June 30th; 28th, July 18th.

☞ Samuel Whipple, of Clinton, Me., was accidently killed near Woodstock, N. B., on the 13th ult. He was in the employment of James Barr, and was engaged in rolling saw logs, when a body of them gave way and he was crushed to death.—Calais Herald.

☞ A letter from Governor Coburn received on Saturday, states that he was with General Hooker at his Headquarters—that is, in the saddle—and should remain with the army until after the impending battle and he had had an opportunity to see how the army, and especially our Maine regiments, acquit themselves in action. He thought he could serve the State there as well or better for a few days than it would be in his power to do at Augusta. He will not return before the last of this week or the first of next. Hon. J. H. Rice, member of Congress from the Penobscot district, was with him.—Cor. Press.

The Prospect of Trouble Between England and America. The leading article of the London Daily News of April 16, says:

"It is impossible to deny that the feeling of irritation between this country and the United States is gradually increasing. There are, unquestionably, faults on both sides. The strong sympathy displayed by the House of Commons in favor of the South upon every occasion may render it extremely difficult for Ministers to maintain neutrality. Whoever may have been to blame for permitting the Alabama to escape from the port of Liverpool, it is abundantly clear that Lord Russell and the subordinate authorities are thoroughly alive to the danger of allowing a repetition of such an incident. There is no doubt that the Foreign Minister is determined to do all he can to enforce the penalties incurred by those who violate the Foreign Enlistment Act. But of course, even Lord Russell's efforts in this direction must prove unavailing, unless they are supported by public opinion; and it must be admitted that the prospect is by no means reassuring. Our contemporary, the Times, omits no opportunity of putting the worst interpretation upon every act of the American government, and of aggravating by every possible means, the national antipathy which seems to have inspired the ruling classes of this country.

The Adjutant General has finished copying the enrolments requested by the Provost Marshal General, and they are now awaiting his order. The enrolment is a very perfect one and comprises about one hundred thousand men liable to be called upon to bear arms in the service of the country, about thirty thousand of whom are already in the service of the army and navy.

The military companies, authorized by the Government and Council under the act of the last Legislature, seem to be progressing very well. Bangor has taken the lead in this work and has set the example to other towns in the State which it will be a credit or them to follow. The petition of Hon. J. H. Rice and eighty-two others, comprising the best and most prominent citizens of Dover and Foxcroft, praying for an organization, was received last Saturday.—Augusta Cor. Portland Press

GREAT Spring Opening,

AT BICKFORD'S.

With opening Spring, see BICKFORD comes!
He hoists no flags, he beats no drums—
And yet, attracted by his lay,
The Finny Tribe their homage pay.
From lake and river, shoal and sea,
They rush to BICKFORD'S Jubilee
Sweet Haddock and juicy Cusk
Delight to press his marble slab—
Rise Lobsters, from old ocean's green,
From Portland daily come by steam,
In their native salt water boiled,
And not with fresh Kenduskeag spoiled,—
Cod, in all his lusty whiteness,
Mackerel, dazzling with his brightness
The noble Salmon, king of fishes,
The cynosure of all the dishes;
And that which makes the palate glad,
The sweet and toothsome river Shad,
These, with other smaller fry,
Besides the Pickled, Smoked and Dry,
At BICKFORD'S over do abound,
When anywhere they can be found.
His price is low—his scales are just—
In Provide nce he puts his trust—
While sought to health that's pestilential
Pollutes his traps, which is—of fish—all

ERADICATING DISEASE.

The effect of this medicine is most wonderful—it acts directly upon the bowels and blood, by removing all obstructions from the internal organs, stimulating them into healthy action, renovating the fountains of life, purifying the blood, cleansing it from all humors, and causing it to course anew through every part of the body; restoring the invalid to health and usefulness. They cure an ill-condition from the system. Liver Complaint, that mainwheel of so many diseases; Jaundice in its worst forms, all Bilious Diseases and Foul Stomach, Dyspepsia, Costiveness, all kinds of Humors, and every disease arising from Indigestion, Headache, Dizziness, Piles, Heartburn, Weakness, Pains in the Side and Bowels, Flatulency, Loss of Appetite, and a torpid or diseased Liver, a disordered Stomach, or bad Blood, to which all are more or less subject in Spring and Summer.

More persons have been cured by this medicine than by all other Bitters in the world. It is highly recommended by Physicians everywhere. Try it, and you will never regret it.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers in Medicine everywhere. Orders addressed to GEO. C. GOODWIN & CO., 38 Hanover St., Boston

CARD.

Upon taking leave of the public as Teacher of Dancing, in which I have been engaged for the past eight years in this city, to enter upon a new business at the Mutual Store on Central Street, I would take this opportunity of returning my warmest thanks to the numerous patrons and the public generally, for the liberal encouragement and uniform kindness which they have constantly extended to me, and manifested on several occasions in an especial manner.

I have disposed of my interest in the Dancing Academy in Mercantile Square, to Mr. A. L. SPENCER, for whom I would bespeak a continuance of the same generous public favor which has rendered my past labors therein both pleasant and profitable.

...NEWSPAPER ARCHIVE®

...rived here today. Among them is about fifty officers, several of them Colonels. They mostly belong to North Carolina and Alabama regiments.

The official list of Provost Marshals under the law for the enrolling and organizing the militia is issued. The following are the appointments for Maine

1st district, Captain C H Dougherty; 2d, John H Baker; 3d, A P Davis 4th, Elijah Low; 5th, Captain A D Bean.

CINCINNATI, 6th.

Dayton has been comparatively quiet today. About thirty of the ringleaders in last night's riot have been arrested without resistance, and placed in jail.

The Empire has been suppressed, its editor arrested and brought here. The soldiers removed a swivel from the Empire office, and also took possession of two wagon loads of muskets stowed in the Light Guards' Armory. Every precaution has been taken to prevent a renewal of the outbreak. The liquor shops have been closed. The telegraph lines have been repaired, so communication with the east is restored.

ST. LOUIS, 6th.

About 100 more of the most prominent secessionists of this city were arrested to-day, and will probably be sent South in a few days.

The list, which is said to number several hundred embraces some of our largest merchants, lawyers, doctors and active business and professional men.

No favoritism will be shown to the guilty disloyalists. They will have to go with their families.

The wives and families of officers in the rebel service, it is said, will also be sent beyond the lines.

Several spies have been convicted by the military commission now in session, and are awaiting sentence.

FORTRESS MONROE, 6th.

The steamer S R Spaulding arrived this afternoon. She left Hilton Head on Saturday, 2d inst, and Beaufort, N C, yesterday. She has no news, and reports all quiet in both departments.

U S transport steamer Ericsson, with two vessels in tow, arrived this forenoon.

The Nansemond river is cleared of rebel batteries, and was opened to navigation yesterday.

The rebel forces have retreated, and are now pursuing across the Blackwater.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail, in our changeable climate, at all seasons of the year: few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at hand a certain antidote to all these complaints.—Experience proves that this is that in Wistar's Balsam, to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of its soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

From a Highly Respectable Apothecary in Bangor.

BANGOR, Oct 4, 1860

Messrs S W Fowle & Co—Please send me a few dozen of WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. The demand for this excellent preparation for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, renders it necessary that I should purchase a considerable quantity of it. It has an enviable reputation which it has acquired upon its own merits alone. My customers have no end of their unlimited confidence in the medicine, and I consider it without a superior in the host of similar specifics. The fact of its having been before the public so long, and the demand still continuing, is proof positive of its appreciation by the afflicted portion of mankind. Respectfully yours,

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & CO., Boston

The Best Chance Yet Offered!

VOLUNTEERS WANTED for a full Company of One Hundred and Fifty able bodied Men, for the above Regiment.

By an order from Lee War Department, the 1st Regiment Maine Volunteers has been transferred to Heavy Artillery.

The duties and exposure of this service are much less than any other, as Heavy Artillery perform no field duty, are quartered in permanent Barracks, and drilled without being called down with their knapsacks, &c., the duties always being performed in Forts.

It will be borne in mind that this is the only Maine Regiment of Heavy Artillery; that it is located near Washington, in a very healthy and pleasant spot.

All State and United States bounties paid. Pay, $13 to $21 per month, with Clothing and Rations.
